

RALPH LAUREN:

PROTECT BANGLADESHI WORKERS!

Bangladesh has a poor record of protecting workers' safety. Last year, more than 1,000 garment factory workers died in the Rana Plaza building collapse in Dhaka.

Ralph Lauren sources clothing from Bangladesh but has refused to join the Accord on Fire and Building Safety in Bangladesh.

Photo: Dhaka Savar Building Collapse by Rijans

AUG. 7, 2014

8:30–9:30 A.M.

Ralph Lauren Shareholders' Meeting

St. Regis Hotel, 2 East 55th St., New York City

Join Nazma Akter, a former child laborer in the Bangladeshi garment industry, the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility and the AFL-CIO to demand that Ralph Lauren join the Accord on Fire and Building Safety in Bangladesh!

For more information, please contact:
Rob McGarrah at rmcgarra@aflicio.org

