

Rules for Activities at Verizon Wireless Stores (Verizon Wireless Corporate Stores, Not VZW Resellers)

Three Activities: Informational Picketing, Rallying, Hand-billing.

General Rules:

- Our goal is to inform people about our labor dispute with Verizon Wireless.
- Do not urge employees not to go to work.
- Do not block customers, employees, or anyone else from entering or exiting the store.
- Do not place members across the entrance/exit of the building so that people must pass through our members to enter or exit the store.
- Do not engage in a confrontation with anyone or yell at anyone.
- You can use inflatable corporate pigs or other similar symbolic figures, or banners, but these cannot block entrance or access to the store. Do not set up inflatable rats or similar items on private property.
- Do not videotape or photograph people going in and out of the store.
- Always obey law enforcement.
- Obey rules to avoid injunctions that will impact our future conduct.

Informational Picketing with or without hand-billing:

- You may conduct informational picketing, in addition to hand-billing, at VZW stores.
- Only informational picketing signs and handbills distributed by CWA specifically for this activity should be used because of legal restrictions.
- The informational picketing signs that should be used are those that say "Stop Verizon Wireless Corporate Greed" and those that say "Verizon Wireless and Verizon Wireline Workers, Stronger Together" or "Verizon Wireless and Verizon Wireline Workers, United for Good Jobs" part of the sign that says “CWA Informational Picketing”. Presto, it’s a rally sign!

- Banners that say “Stop Verizon Wireless Corporate Greed” can be used.
- Numbers of people at a rally are not limited if the group does not block the store entrances or public walkways.

Hand-billing:

- Hand-billing can be done alone or with informational picketing or rallying.
- Hand-billers cannot block customers or workers from entering or exiting the store.
- Hand-billers cannot congregate in a large group at the VZW reseller site.
- Banners that say “Stop Verizon Wireless Corporate Greed” can be used.
