

NYS EVICTIONS & COURTS

ARE COURTS OPENING? KIND OF.

As of June 22, Landlords can sue, but only by mail. Tenants can sue for repairs and illegal lockouts, electronically or in person.

CAN EVICTIONS START? NO

Thanks to the courts, not Cuomo, the universal eviction moratorium is STILL in effect. It's in effect indefinitely but at least until August 6.

WILL I HAVE A COURT DATE? MOST LIKELY, NO.

There are no in person court dates now, at least until August 6.

It's possible you could have a virtual court date.
